The ear of the leader must ring with the voices of the people.

— Woodrow Wilson

At the University of Alaska Southeast, the Master of Public Administration program is tailored for busy public and non-profit managers who seek to enhance their credentials and broaden their horizons. The UAS M.P.A. comes to you — where you live and work in Alaska and the Yukon Territory. The M.P.A. is offered through live distance classes via various platforms streamed over the internet. We combine the relationships and structure of a regular classroom with the accessibility of a distance delivered program to create a stable, supportive and high quality graduate education.

Pathways to a successful career with the UAS Master of Public Administration

Required Preparation
- Intro Statistics (C or higher)
- Micro Economics (C or higher)
- Bachelor’s degree in any discipline

UAS Degrees
- Master of Public Administration with possible concentrations in:
  - Natural Resource Policy
  - Rural Development

Potential Careers
- Federal/State/Local Government
- Non-Profit Organizations
- Tribal Government
- Military
- Public Education
- Juvenile Justice
- Health and Human Services
- Natural Resource Management

Potential Salaries
- $41,563 to $97,750 per year with a master’s degree in Public Administration
- Overall individuals with a Master’s Degree earn an average of 28.1% more than those with a bachelor’s degree in the public administration field.

“The flexibility of the UAS M.P.A. program fit nicely with my work schedule. Additionally, unlike other e-Learning programs, at UAS my classes were highly interactive and relevant to my career in local government.”

— Justin Doll
Program information is subject to change. Please visit our website at www.uas.alaska.edu for the most current program information.