Code of Ethics

Any person employed by the University of Alaska who purchases goods and services for the University, shall be bound by this code and shall:

1. Avoid actual or even the appearance of unethical or compromising practices in vendor relationships, actions, and communications by diligently following the lawful instructions of the University while using professional judgment and reasonable care in exercising the authority granted.

2. Notify the University of any private or professional activity that would create a conflict between personal interests and the interests of the University of Alaska.

3. Neither solicit nor accept money, loans, credits, prejudicial discounts, gifts, entertainment, favors, or services from present or potential suppliers which might influence or appear to influence purchasing decisions.

4. Promote positive supplier relationships through impartiality in all phases of the purchasing cycle.

5. Enhance the public trust by adhering to the highest standards of ethical behavior.
