

discover | design | research

GLACIER BAY BARANOF ISLAND

Glacier & Fjord Dynamics
Tidal Processes
Climate
Intertidal Ecology
Harbor Seal Biology
Salmon Bioenergetics

PHOTO BY EMMA FUNK

High school students! Get college credit in southeastern Alaska's outdoor classroom this summer.

Study glacier dynamics and biologic succession on a vessel in Glacier Bay, or

Study fisheries and marine science at NOAA's Little Port Walter Marine Station on Baranof Island

Program open to 10th – 12th graders.

Info: www.uas.alaska.edu/biology/ddr or call (907) 523-2336

UAS UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA
SOUTHEAST
learn • engage • change

SpringBoard
A program of the Juneau Economic Development Council

DDR is a partnership between the University of Alaska Southeast and the Juneau Economic Development Council
UAS is an AA/EO institution