

Information for Students with Disabilities Transitioning to University of Alaska Southeast

Step 1: Learn about Disability Support Services

Call (907) 796-6000 Toll free 1 (877) 465-4827 or email dss@uas.alaska.edu to meet with Disability Support Services staff. DSS Website - <http://www.uas.alaska.edu/dss/>

Step 2: Determine academic goal and apply for admissions

Information about Certificates, Associates, Baccalaureate, and Graduate degrees and a list of academic advisors and admissions requirements can be found through the admissions office. Admissions Website – www.uas.alaska.edu/admissions/
Admissions Office Phone (907) 796-6100 Toll free (877) 465-4827

Step 3: Determine how to pay for college

Policies and Tips can be found through the UAS Financial Aid office
Financial Aid Website – www.uas.alaska.edu/finaid/
Financial Aid Office Phone (907) 796-6255 Toll free (877) 465-4827

Step 4: Apply for on-campus housing, if applicable

Information on the different types of housing available, the cost of living on campus, and to print off applications and other necessary forms can be found on the housing webpage.
Housing Website- www.uas.alaska.edu/housing/
Housing and Activities (907) 796-6528 Toll free (877) 465-4827

Step 5: Sign up for New Student Orientation

For more information about New Student Orientation check out the Orientation website or call the Student Resource Center.
Orientation Website – www.uas.alaska.edu/orientation/index.html
Student Resource Center (907) 796-6000 Toll free (877)-465-4827

Step 6: Register for classes

Answers to frequently asked questions about registering for classes can be found at the Records and Registration Website-www.uas.alaska.edu/admissions/records/registration.html
If there are still unanswered questions check with the Student Resource Center.
Student Resource Center (907) 796-6000 Toll free (877)-465-4827

More Questions?

Contact the Student Resource Center (907) 796-6000 Toll free (877) 465-4827

Or

Use the University of Alaska Southeast Website www.uas.alaska.edu/future_students