

UAS Speaking/Writing Designator Course Form

Writing-and speaking-intensive courses are based on the idea that written and oral communication are the business of the whole academic community and that students' communication skills will improve when they see speaking and writing at the center of their academic curriculum. The Curriculum Committee has approved criteria for designating speaking- and writing-intensive courses and will use this form to approve courses for this designation in the UAS catalog.

Course Name: _____

Designate: Speaking or Writing (use separate form for courses which could be labeled both speaking- and writing-intensive).

Sponsoring Department/Division: _____

Describe how your attached course syllabus meets the following criteria:

- Criteria 1: Grading/Assessment: _____
- Criteria 2: Opportunities for Speaking/Writing: _____
- Criteria 3: Type of Instruction: _____
- Criteria 4: Method of Feedback: _____

Describe how your department will monitor the course's speaking/writing intensive course content on a regular basis:

Describe the administrative support your course needs to be designated speaking- or writing-intensive:

Signatures: In order needed:

- Initiating Faculty Member:
- Chair of Department:
- Dean:
- Curriculum Committee Chair: