Guidelines for Study Room Use

- UAS Students have priority use for study rooms.
- Rooms 106, 107, 213, 215, 216 are available on a first-come, first-served basis to all (212, 214 can be reserved, UAS affiliation only).
- During busy times, preference may be given to students requiring the DVD workstations and to students using audio conveners to attend e-learning classes.
- Individuals may be asked to leave the room if a group needs a study space and all other rooms are in use.
- When using the DVD workstations, please be mindful of noise. We suggest using headphones or keeping the volume low.
- Headphones, cables, audio conveners, and remotes are available for checkout at the Circulation Desk.
- Small food items and covered beverages ARE allowed, please clean up after yourself.

The following activities are not given priority use of the study rooms:
