TRiO Interim Director

Jacque Tagaban left the TRiO program this August. The Provost appointed Elizabeth Williams as the Interim Director until a new director can be found.

TRiO anticipates hiring a new director by spring term. In the meantime, Elizabeth, Alia, Kristina, and Gate will continue to provide support services to you, our valued TRiO students. Stop by the offices anytime.

Plan Early for Midterm Evaluations

Wondering where time went? It is time for student midterm evaluations. Progress Report forms will be sent to you Oct 27, by email and postal mail.

Midterm evaluations provide you and staff an opportunity to check in to see how you are doing at meeting your academic performance goals.

Plan ahead and set up a midterm appointment for sometime between Oct. 30–Nov. 10th. Contact Elizabeth Williams at 796-6306 or send an email to: jneaw@uas.alaska.edu.

Bus Pass Policy Change / Program Eligibility Update / Participation Agreement / Housekeeping Announcement

Due to University fiscal policy, the bus pass program must be discontinued at this time. However, staff will be working to find alternative resources to address students' transportation needs. We will keep you posted!

Did you submit your eligibility documentation to the TRiO program? If not, TRiO is unable to serve you until your file is complete. We will contact students to request income tax or disability documentation. We thank you and look forward to your assistance.

If you missed our Back-to-School Orientation event, stop by the TRiO office and sign your fall term 2006 Participation Agreement. Please keep in mind that all TRiO students must sign a new Participation Agreement at the beginning of each academic year.

If you have attended a campus workshop or any type of cultural event, please let TRiO know of your participation. Send an email to Elizabeth at jneaw@uas.alaska.edu. Call the office to see how you can get a free ticket to see the play "Noises Off" at the Perseverance Theatre.
