

FY18 COLLABORATION

Between

Juneau Arts & Humanities Council
350 Whittier
Juneau, AK 99801
(907) 586-2787

and

University of Alaska Southeast (UAS)
11066 Auke Lake Way
Juneau, AK 99801
(907) 796-6509

The University of Alaska Southeast and Juneau Arts & Humanities Council agree to collaborate on a variety of arts and cultural community events, recognizing that each entity strengthens the programs of the other.

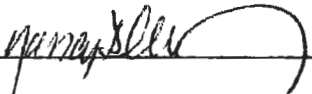

JAHC will:

- List UAS as a season sponsor on all printed publicity, on the web site, in the JACC, and link directly from the web to UAS. This is considered a $5000 cash value and includes 4 complimentary premium concert tickets and 4 Flash Zone Saturday Wearable Art: "Renaissance" seats (a table), which may be used for fundraising auctions, or however best serves the purposes of the University.
- Provide $5 ticket prices to all Performing Arts and Culture Concerts for UAS students.
- Include the UAS Art Dept. Juried Art Show in the annual JAHC Gallery exhibits in April each year.
- Provide exhibit space for other UAS student or faculty work as requested.
- Collaborate with UAS, Juneau Jazz & Classics. and the Juneau School District to coordinate the non-profit and community participation for the annual Community Day on Campus in May 2018.
- Collaborate on a college tour visit by Poetry Out Loud state finalists in March 2018- students would meet with the Campus Recruitment office. (This may be a short visit this year.)
- Offer Teaching Artist Training workshops, through which participants can earn one professional development credit.
- Assist in promoting UAS classes, particularly the art and creative writing classes, and the UAS Arts publication , Tidal Echoes.
- Assist in promoting Evening at Egan through radio, and online calendaring.
- Collaborate on the planning for the signature summertime event, tentatively called Teacher as Artist/Artist as Teacher.
- Collaborate as a partner with UAS and the Juneau School District on the Margaret A. Cargill Artful Teaching grant work.
- Provide intern opportunities in the arts as may be needed .
- Bring Holiday Pops to campus in December, to encourage community use of the campus.
- The Executive Director will continue to serve on the UAS Juneau Campus Advisory Council.

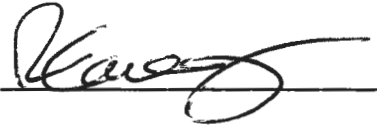

UAS will

- Support JAHC with a $5,000 cash contribution.
- Recruit and help select UAS representatives (a student and a staff person) to the JAHC Board of Trustees.

Both organizations agree to support and promote the work each does for the benefit of the entire community.

Nancy DeCherney, Executive Director
Juneau Arts & Humanities Council

Chancellor Rick Caulfield
University of Alaska Southeast

Date: 3/30/18

Date: 4/2/18